DETAILED ACTION

Priority

1. Receipt is acknowledged of papers submitted under 35 U.S.C. 119(a)-(d), which papers have been placed of record in the file.

Information Disclosure Statement

2. The information disclosure statement filed reference listed in the information Disclosure Submitted on 03/31/04 have been considered by the examiner (see attached PTO-1449

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

4. Claims 1-3, are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Dugan et al. (US Publication 2005/0021713 A1).

Regarding claim 1, Dugan teaches a digital codeless telephone that uses a public telephone network, wherein:

a transmitter calls a receiver by means of a message that has a group identification code for direct communication between personal stations and a waiting mode change request information (0384, 0397); and the receiver changes the waiting mode according to the message, whereby the receiver is made to prepare for receiving (0384, 0397).

Regarding claim 2, Dugan teaches a digital codeless telephone as claimed in claim 1, wherein a called party subaddress or a calling party subaddress is used as the message (0384, 0389).

Regarding claim 3, Dugan teaches a digital codeless telephone that uses a public telephone network, wherein:

a transmitter calls a receiver by means of a message that has a group identification code for direct communication between personal stations (0384, 0397); and

the receiver holds the group identification code for direct communication between the personal stations, whereby a direct communication between cordless hand sets is registered (0384, 0397).

Conclusion

5. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

Chavez et al. (US Publication 2005/0013421 A1) disclose instant messaging to and from PBX stations

Smith et al. (US Publication 2004/033809) disclose system and method for connecting wireless handsets with wire line switches

Pulver (US Patent 6,741,835 B2) disclose method and system for communications
